1. In June 1951, Volkspolizei Dienststelle (VPD) 0932, an engineer officers school, was located in the former RAD (Reichs Labor Service) officers' school at Elietz. It was organized into a headquarters and five companies, and totaled about 600 police, about 40 of whom were headquarters soldiers and about 60 who belonged to the school cadre. Each company had four Züge of 25 men each. The 1st and 5th Cos were composed of VP Anwaerter; the 2d, 3d, and 4th Cos of VP Hauptwachtmeister and VP Meister. The school was equipped with small arms, light machine guns, and explosives of all types. Its vehicles were 5 ZIS trucks, 1 Ford truck, 7 BMW sedans, 1 DKW sedan, and 1 motorcycle.

2. The 1st through 4th Cos received general engineer training, such as the construction of obstacles, handling of explosives of all types, placing of concentrated charges, laying and clearance of mines, and construction of small bridges. The 5th Co, a special pontoon unit, was equipped with 6 heavy and 15 light pontoons and was to receive assault boats in the near future. The 3d Zug of the 3d Co also received radio training.

3. Officers of the VP included:
